Application for Alberta Student Loan Relief

If you have an Alberta Student Loan and have completed your studies, a portion of your Alberta student loan may be reduced by the Alberta government. This reduction does not apply to Canada student loans.

To be eligible, you must:

August 2011

- have completed your program of studies and received your post-secondary certificate, diploma or degree, and
- have an Alberta student loan, and
- have exceeded the minimum debt level for your program. This level varies by program each year and is set by the Alberta government.

If you qualify, your Alberta student loan will be reduced automatically, normally within six months of the date you complete your studies. If you did not indicate on your funding application that you were in your final year of studies and you don't want to wait six months, you can complete this application and mail to:

Students Finance, PO BOX 28000 STN MAIN, EDMONTON AB T5J 4R4
